"German Syrup"

G. Gloger, Druggist, Watertown, Wis. This is the opinion of a man who keeps a drug store, sells all medicines, comes in direct contact with the patients and their families, and knows better than anyone else how remedies sell, and what true merit they have. He hears of all the failures and successes, and can therefore judge: "I know of no medicine for Coughs, Sore Throat, or Hoarseness that had done such effective work in my family as Bosch's German Syrup. Last winter a lady called at my store, who was suffering from a very severe cold. She could hardly talk, and I told her about German Syrup and that a few doses would give relief; but she had no confidence in patent medicines. I told her to take a bottle, and if the results were not satisfactory I would make no charge for it. A few days after she called and paid for it, saying that she would never be without it in future as a few doses had given her relief."

MY LADY'S SONG.

Sing again, oh, lady mine,
Your rare ditty of the Rhine!
Lovely visions rise and float
On the wave of each full note;
Silvery daybreaks brighten slow,
Sunsets blush on mountain snow,
Moonlight shivers on the sea,
Autumn burns in bush and tree,
And a charm lights everything—
As I listen and you sing

Blowing willows bend and sigh,
Whispering rivers wander by,
Through the pines sweep sea-tones soft,
Sailing rooks shoot land aloft,
Wild fowl crooning o'er the mere,
Throbbles in the dawn call clear,
Vanished faces gleam and go,
Silenced voices murmur low,
Gentlest memories come and cling—
As I listen and you sing

Ah! repeat the music's tale,
Love shall perish not, nor fail!
I forget the fear of death,
Breathe in thought immortal breath,
I believe in broadening truth,
In the generous creeds of youth,
In consoling hopes that climb
Up to some triumphant time,
And a dream of splendor bring—
As I listen and you sing

—Joseph Truman in Macmillan's Magazine.

A Woman Bullfighter.

While the fair damsels of England are endeavoring to outstep men from every position, which until now they alone have occupied, their Gallie sisters show themselves by no means backward in doing the same thing. The progressive English girl, disdainful to link her fate with that of man, enters college and becomes a senior wrangler or an authority on the piliocene period. If her tastes are still more exalted she is a disciple of Buddha, and reverently believes in the metempsychosis. Perhaps she may have a liking for athletics, and follows the hounds over many a well plowed field, is incomparable at a five barred gate, and is regularly in at the death to receive poor Reynard's brush as the guerdon of her exertion. But the Frenchwoman has already gone beyond this.

The French have lately adopted the Spanish bullfight as one of their national pastimes. Of course, it is not such a common sport as it is south of the Pyrenees. But to make up for this the French have lately introduced a new feature of the sport likely to be interesting to those who are longing for the emancipation of women. The torreador is antiquated. So also the picador, the matador and the rest of them. In future the sterner sex will look on and witness the bull writhing and wincing under death wounds inflicted by the torreadors, picadors and matadors.

Who knows whether in these days of woman's progress the cow will not supersede the bull, and in place of her lord and master, fight her well fought fight with her feminine assailants, mounted on horses of the female persuasion. Time alone can tell. Meanwhile let us watch with intense interest the impending bullfights in Paris, in which the fair sex, duly and honorably represented in the person of Mlle. Lenty, will slaughter the victim before an enthusiastic and admiring crowd of spectators.—Toronto Mail.

The first Australian woman who took a degree at the London university was Adela McCullough Knight, who recently died in Vienna. Although only twenty-five years old she had taken honors at the university, and at the school of medicine had received the highest prize given in their department for women. She had been appointed resident physician in a new hospital for women as soon as she received her degree, and had been entertained by the Princess of Wales at Marlborough House.

MCKINLEY AND CAMPBELL.

A Washington correspondent of the Boston Transcript says:

Governor Campbell has the advantage of Mr. McKinley in having a wife who is his ablest lieutenant, while Mrs. McKinley is a helpless and confirmed invalid. She is reported to be an interesting woman by those who know her, and Mr. McKinley's attention and kindness to her are beyond all praise. He is a man well fitted to shine in society, and if his wife could get out with him no doubt he would take pleasure in the graceful, cultivated and enlightened society of Washington. But as she can't, he quietly gives it up and follows the path of good taste and dignity by declining invitations to places where his wife can't go with him.

But never was there a man better off in a wife than Governor Campbell. During the time he was in Congress the Campbells had a very pretty house on Connecticut Avenue, where they entertained handsomely. And Mrs. Campbell is wonderfully adapted to preside over a public man's home. She has much wit and sprightliness; and as for tact—she beats the world. Johnny McLean might fight Governor Campbell in every issue of the Cincinnati Enquirer, but that would not keep Mrs. Campbell from having Johnny and his wife and sister to dinner whenever she liked and charming them by her grace and intelligence. She is a handsome woman of brunette complexion, with fine eyes and a very tall and elegant figure. She thinks the world of Jimmy, and if he isn't President of these United States some day or other it won't be her fault.

Governor Campbell himself is a man of many personal attractions. He is as handsome for a man as Mrs. Campbell is for a woman, and has a charming sort of good fellowship about him. He and McKinley are upon the most friendly and even intimate terms. During the Republican Convention at Columbus Mr. McKinley was entertained at dinner at the Governor's mansion, and the afternoon before the convention met, Mrs. Campbell drove up to the hotel where Mr. McKinley was staying and took him to drive in her handsome victoria. That was Mrs. Campbell all over—doing the popular and graceful thing at the right time. She can scarcely be called a politician in the sense that Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague was, who studied public questions deeply, and was one of the most astute political managers this country ever saw. Still less she is like Mrs. Logan, who could rally the boys with the best of them. Mrs. Campbell's role is that of being the dignified graceful woman always, and incidentally to make every friend and get every vote for James G. Campbell that can possibly be had. Governor Campbell is a lucky man. He is comfortably well off, but not rich. He is in the prime of life, handsome, polished and winning. He has a promising flock of children—the eldest a young lady just grown—and his wife of brains and charms to stand by him through thick and thin.

WILL APPLY TO NEVADA.

Senator Chandler of New Hampshire is making some startling revelations over his own name in "The Monitor" of Concord, which says:

"Railroad passes and railroad money dominate the State and the Governor, Councilors, Senators and Representatives are the mere agents in their offices of the two great railroads."

A Republican candidate for United States Senator, hostile to the politics and the railroad of Jones and Sinclair, finding his case hopeless without their aid, bargains with them for and secures his election as Senator, pays them for their assistance by the passage of important railroad measures, and becomes the bounden and subservient tool. His services and those of all the followers he can command belong now and hereafter to the leaders of the Democratic party; and with the aid of their money and their well known appliances, he will endeavor to perpetuate his and their power in the Republican party. The present condition of this once independent party is lamentable enough."

One of the methods of corruption of officials is by a lavish bestowal of free passes.

"All lawyers ride free. The editors and newspaper managers ride free. Ministers ride free or at special rates. The Governor rides free. His council ride free. All officers at the State House ride free. The members of the Legislature all ride free, not only during the session, but during the rest of the year. County, city and town officers ride free. The wives and children of most of the free riders also ride free. Above all, local politicians in every town and ward ride free. The exceptions to the above statements are so few that they prove the general rule. Corruption by free passes and mileage tickets is almost universal. No person of any importance in town or State fails to ride free unless he omits to ask for his free pass or his free ticket. * * * If any person, high or low, rich or poor, is heard to make vigorous protest against any railroad wrong, he is approached by some ready emissary of the road and quieted by a free pass." Here's a state of things for a New England State. There is a law in the State against any person's riding on a free pass; but no penalty has ever been affixed to the law, and it is violated with impunity. "Not a dozen were not law-breakers," says the Senator, speaking of the last Legislature.

Does not the above apply, to a certain extent, to Nevada? We believe it does.

SENATOR W. A. PEPPER.

The Farmers Alliance Successor to In-galls in the U. S. Senate.

The election of W. A. Pepper to the United States Senate has not yet convinced politicians that there is a third party in this country. It was, long ago as it took place, so unexpected that party newspaper writers have scarcely yet recovered from the shock. Senator Pepper is a western farmer, and has lived nearly all his life in Kansas. He has also studied law and has been an editor. Whatever his abilities may be, there is no doubt that he has the courage of his convictions, and he will make himself heard in the Senate. He described the campaign in Kansas as a revolution and himself as a Moses, leading the oppressed children of Israel.

Senator Pepper is certainly very much in earnest. He believes that the Farmer's Alliance is a great movement of the people, that it will grow stronger and stronger until "the great awakening," which he says will be evident early in 1892. He claims that it has over 3,000,000 members and is rapidly growing, and that it is strongest in the Southern and Northwestern States. Col. Polk, the President of the Alliance, is of the same opinion as Pepper. Senator Pepper believes that the people have been delegating the business of Government to politicians and lawyers, and that the interest of the masses are jeopardized by the syndicates and monopolies and growingly dominant corporations. He asserts that the money power has been robbing the farmers through an actual or relative contraction of the circulating medium, and they believe in free silver if not limitless issues of irredeemable paper. They desire at least only money that shall have a normal purchasing power. Senator Pepper lives in Topeka, Kan.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Stirns Breaks the Record.

Special to the Journal.

Dns Moines, Iowa, September 1.—In the two-year-old trot at the State Fair races to-day, Stirns won in three straight heats in 2:34. This beats the world's record for two-year-olds on a half mile track.

BY TELEGRAPH!

News of Importance From Home and Abroad.

United States Bonds.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, September 1.—The amount of 4½ per cent. bonds continued at 2 per cent. to-day was twenty-three and a half millions. There are also about a half a million more in process of continuance. The interest on outstanding 4½ per cent. bonds ceases to-morrow, after which the Treasury Department will redeem all that are presented for that purpose. A circular will be issued to-morrow extending for an indefinite period the privilege of continuing these bonds at 2 per cent. It is expected that the rest of the outstanding continued bonds, estimated to aggregate $20,000,000, will be presented for redemption during the next two months. The net amount of gold in the Treasury to meet this liability is $132,500,000. Should the entire $20,000,000 be paid in gold, it would not entrench on the $100,000,000 of gold reserved for the redemption of legal tender notes.

An Attempt at Wholesale Poisoning.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 1.—A Chronicle's Visalia special says an attempt at wholesale poisoning was made at a boarding-house here Sunday. Mrs. McDermott, the landlady, made some ice cream. Before freezing it she set the mixture near a pump to cool. Eleven persons ate of the ice cream at dinner and were immediately seized with cramps in the stomach and a burning sensation. Medical aid was summoned and all are now out of danger. Investigation showed that a large quantity of croton oil had been poured into the mixture before it was frozen. It is thought a man who was expelled from the house for drunkenness is the poisoner as he went away making threats. He left town the same Sunday night and cannot be found.

Jones for Governor of New York.

Special to the Journal.

TROY, September 1.—A special telegram from Saratoga says: "A conference was held this afternoon which will have important bearing upon State politics. Representative Democrats from New York and Buffalo were present. The principal celebrity on hand was Lieutenant-Governor Jones, and at the conclusion of the conference he expressed his willingness to accept the independent nomination for Governor. It is known that part of the plan of the campaign decided upon is a convention at Albany of the central labor unions of the State, to be held between the dates set for the holdings of the Republican and Democratic State Conventions. This convention will place Jones in nomination."

The Itata Case.

Special to the Journal.

NEW YORK, September 1.—O. R. Flint, Agent of the Chilean Steamship Company, has engaged Lawyer Goodwin to go to Los Angeles and defend the interests of the owners of the Itata in the suit brought by the United States.

Wm. Irvin, counsel for George F. Burt, shipper of arms, said: "The arms belong to Trumbull. He bought them and paid for them. Whether he will claim them or not I do not know, but if I were in his place I certainly should. As to the ship that belongs to the Chilean steamship company, though she was seized by the insurgents, the insurgent government was never owner."

The Nicaragua Canal.

Special to the Journal.

GREYTON, Nicaragua, September 1.—The force of men employed on the Nicaragua canal has been somewhat reduced, but satisfactory progress is being made in the work of construction. The pier at this port has been extended to the length of 1,030 feet, and the dredging of the channels continues. Great progress has also been made in the construction of telegraph and railroad lines and buildings. Excavation has been carried to a depth of seventeen feet for a half mile and the right of way cleared fully ten miles.

Hawaiian Annexation.

Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, September 1.—Hon. L. S. Thurston of Honolulu, who is in this city, said to a reporter to-night that the McKinley bill has had the effect of uniting the native and foreign population of Hawaii upon the subject of annexation. He has just received one of the native newspapers which advocates the formation of a republic or the immediate annexation to the United States. This fact is remarkable, as it is the first time in the Hawaiian history that the natives have publicly favored such a thing.

The Farmers' Alliance Against the Sub-Treasury.

Special to the Journal.

ST. LOUIS, September 1.—Ex President Hall of the Missouri Farmers' Alliance has sent a circular to every county alliance in this State and to all anti-sub-treasury leaders in other States asking them to call a meeting as soon as possible, and to elect delegates to the national meeting of the anti-sub-treasury wing, to be held in St. Louis, September 15th. Hall fears if the sub-treasury craze, as he terms it, is not stopped, it is bound to destroy the usefulness of the order.

The World's Fair.

Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, September 1.—A local paper says the Finance Committee of the World's Fair is considering the proposition to ask Congress to make the Fair management a loan of $5,000,000, taking a mortgage on receipts. Traffic Manager Jay Cox has been advised by the managers of the Pacific Coast Steamships Co. that all lines which they represent will grant half rates on exhibits to and from the Exposition. The Southern Pacific railway has made the same announcement.

Labor Day.

Special to the Journal.

SACRAMENTO, September 1.—At the request of various labor organizations Governor Markham to-day issued a proclamation recommending that Monday, September 7th, be observed as a day of rest and recreation, and that all business not necessary to the comfort and the welfare of the people be suspended; also that all State offices be closed on that day.

A False Report.

Special to the Journal.

NEW YORK, September 1.—The reports circulated about pending developments in regard to Union Pacific affairs are denied by the officers and Directors of the company. The report that Sidney Dillon will resign the Presidency is called ridiculous by the Directors.

The Russian Jews not Permitted to Land

Special to the Journal.

NEW YORK, September 1.—Twenty writs of habeas corpus were sworn out in the cases of the Russian Jews detained at the barge office and made returnable in the United States Court to-morrow morning. The Superintendent of Immigration will have to show cause why these emigrants are not permitted to land.

Regan Will Not Accept.

Special to the Journal.

AUSTIN, Tex., September 1.—United States Senator Regan has been offered a place on the Inter-State Commerce Commission. It is understood here that Judge Regan will not accept the offer, but will remain in his present position as head of the Texas Railway Commission.

The National Debt.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, September 1.—Aggregate debt September 1st, $610,529,420; decrease during August, $1,091,210; total cash in Treasury, $766,002,347; net cash balance, $80,274,364; increase balance during the month, $4,440,679.

A Woman's Literary Pretensions.

Maria Faxon, whose kitchen talks have made her a household name all the world over, does not pretend to any literary requirements. Although she writes a great deal and permits her name to appear at the bottom of many newspaper and magazine articles, yet she frankly tells the editor that she is not a literary woman and does not pretend to be one. She says she has a full knowledge of cookery topics, and that she is willing to write down what she knows in her own simple manner, and then if editors choose to accept it they must be willing to edit and even to rewrite it, keeping always the facts in the case as she gives them.—New York Letter.

Four of a Kind.

A pretty young woman and her three little girls attracted the admiration of all who saw them the other afternoon. They were exactly alike, and as they passed out of the Fifth Avenue gate at Central park they reminded one of nothing so much as a big violet and its three tiny buds growing up from the green background of trees and grasses. The mother's idea of dressing her children in the same colors that she herself wore was made strikingly original by the fact that the little girls were made up after the same fashion as her own, besides being in the same colors.

For the woman was just that style of a dainty bit of femininity that can wear the long simple folds and soft laces of childhood, and appear all the lovelier when arrayed in them. And of course the golden haired little elf by her side seemed a part of their pale violet and filmy white dresses, so beautifully were the hues of their blue eyes and soft pink cheeks blended among the other colors.—New York Advertiser.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

A business building 550 feet high is proposed for Broadway, New York. The Eiffel Tower and Washington monument, only, will overtop it. It is to be constructed of steel, with twenty-six stories, more than one thousand offices, and to have a summer roof garden 300 feet in the air, with express elevators to the tenth floor, and a change of cars at the twentieth for the tower. This beats the world.

Last Sunday Miss Minnie Saul, of Suto, Nevada, made a wager of $50 with two gentlemen that she would run to Dayton, a distance of three miles, inside of thirty minutes. She accomplished the feat in twenty-three minutes and thirty-seven seconds, winning the money. Miss Saul is sixteen years of age and weighs 140 pounds and is not engaged.

M. J. Duman and wife, of Sacramento, are visiting friends in Reno. Joe thinks Reno has greatly improved since he left. He remembers well the evening he went to the depot to take the train for his future home, Sacramento, and bade Reno farewell; for when he spoke of it a tear glistened in the corner of his eye. They are all married now, Joe, but they remember the circumstance well enough.

The funeral of the late John N. Snodgrass took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Hall of Truckee Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., where the services were held. Rev. John Barr delivered a short but impressive funeral sermon, after which the burial service of the Odd Fellows was pronounced. The remains were then conveyed to their last resting place in Odd Fellows' cemetery, followed by a large concourse of friends and relatives.

THE WINNEMUCCA FIRE.

Another Account of It. A Partial List of the Losses.

The fire broke out at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and at 5:30 o'clock the flames had consumed the following buildings and their contents: N. Levy & Co.'s general merchandise store, furniture store and warehouse, loss about $75,000, insurance, $40,000; Judge Bonfield's law office and also a business house on Main street, loss $1,200, insured for $500; John Schmidt's boot and shoe store and also his residence, loss $2,000, no insurance; George R. Walker's undertaking establishment, loss $1,000 insurance $500; Chas. Wurtelle's variety and fruit store, loss $2,000, no insurance; George Luther's saloon, loss $2,500, no insurance; Henry Busch's two buildings, loss $3,000, no insurance; M. Hoffman's store, loss $5,000, no insurance; F. L. Fellows' saloon and building, loss $3,000, no insurance; Mrs. S. W. Rose, lodging-house, loss $2,500, no insurance; Mrs. A. F. Gilson, Postoffice building, loss $1,000, no insurance; also, her residence, loss $2,000, insurance $800; Mrs. Mary Brown's building, loss $1,000, partly insured; Christ Deihl's bakery, residence, saloon and one other building, loss $10,000, partially insured; McAllister's residence, loss $500, no insurance; Miss Lou Chapelle's building, loss $800, no insurance; Harry Warren's dwelling, loss $1,000, insurance $300; Masonic Hall, loss $20,000, insurance $12,000; Silver State building and materials, loss $4,000, insurance $2,500; Busch & Neth's gas works, loss $3,000, no insurance; D. Pascale's residence, loss $3,000, insurance $1,500; Mrs. Windle's residence, loss $1,500, no insurance.

No building in the line of the fire escaped except the fire-proof building of the First National Bank, which is not injured. Judge Bonfield saved his extensive law library.

The fire originated in the outbuildings of John Schmidt's store, but how is not as yet ascertained. In every instance the loss was total. The Winnemucca water works proved to be a lamentable failure.

The scenes at the fire were pitiful in the extreme. The people had to stand helpless and see everything they had in the world devoured by the fire. Things were taken from houses only to be burned in the streets, so fiercely did the flames spread. Explosions of powder occurred at intervals and added to the terror of the people and the horror of the situation. The town presents a dismal aspect. The streets are being crowded with homeless people. The tramps took the opportunity to provide themselves with clothing as well as to steal everything of value they could lay their hands on. The town is also filled with drunken and well-dressed Indians, who could not be prevented from obtaining whisky under the existing circumstances.

Nevada Wants Water and Free Silver.

Gano Kennedy, correspondent of the Rural Press, when asked by our reporter yesterday what he thought of Western Nevada said:

"I agree with Senator Stewart in his reply to Senator Sherman. Nevada wants water and free silver. Free silver will come when the people of the Coast unite on the question. Abundance of water for irrigation will be had when the people of Nevada unite on the question. During the past few weeks it has been my pleasant surprise to visit your farming district adjacent to Reno, and also that of Mason Valley. I am surprised to find such fertile fields, fine fruit and rich ranches. I am sure it is not generally known throughout the Pacific Coast that such a land of promise lies at the foot of the Sierras. With my own eyes I have beheld orchards bending down with fine qualities of fruit; smooth sloping meadows yielding their three crops of five to seven tons per acre of alfalfa. I have seen fat cattle from your fields on the road to market, and your Normans, French coach and Clydesdales drawing the machinery. Truly, you live in a favored land and climate."
